Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing your holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletin's were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.

Hello all!

It is hard to believe that it is almost time for the kids to go back to school! The summer flew by! As some of you know getting ready for School to go back in is exciting and scary and for us parents a little stressful! We have to make sure the kids have everything they need to start school and these days the schools give you list a mile long for the kids to bring with them! Why am I telling you all this? Well we would like to help relieve some of the stress by providing the children in need with the basic supplies! Below is a list of the needed items and we would need them by Sunday the 7th of August so we can put them together for the kids to be handed out on the 14th at church! If you know of anyone who is in need of help getting there kids ready please have them call or email me! Thank you all for your love and support at Crossroads!

Blessings,
Aimee

Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing your holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletin's were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.

Hello all!

It is hard to believe that it is almost time for the kids to go back to school! The summer flew by! As some of you know getting ready for School to go back in is exciting and scary and for us parents a little stressful! We have to make sure the kids have everything they need to start school and these days the schools give you list a mile long for the kids to bring with them! Why am I telling you all this? Well we would like to help relieve some of the stress by providing the children in need with the basic supplies! Below is a list of the needed items and we would need them by Sunday the 7th of August so we can put them together for the kids to be handed out on the 14th at church! If you know of anyone who is in need of help getting there kids ready please have them call or email me! Thank you all for your love and support at Crossroads!

Blessings,
Aimee

Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing your holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletin's were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.

Hello all!

It is hard to believe that it is almost time for the kids to go back to school! The summer flew by! As some of you know getting ready for School to go back in is exciting and scary and for us parents a little stressful! We have to make sure the kids have everything they need to start school and these days the schools give you list a mile long for the kids to bring with them! Why am I telling you all this? Well we would like to help relieve some of the stress by providing the children in need with the basic supplies! Below is a list of the needed items and we would need them by Sunday the 7th of August so we can put them together for the kids to be handed out on the 14th at church! If you know of anyone who is in need of help getting there kids ready please have them call or email me! Thank you all for your love and support at Crossroads!

Blessings,
Aimee

Hello all!

It is hard to believe that it is almost time for the kids to go back to school! The summer flew by! As some of you know getting ready for School to go back in is exciting and scary and for us parents a little stressful! We have to make sure the kids have everything they need to start school and these days the schools give you list a mile long for the kids to bring with them! Why am I telling you all this? Well we would like to help relieve some of the stress by providing the children in need with the basic supplies! Below is a list of the needed items and we would need them by Sunday the 7th of August so we can put them together for the kids to be handed out on the 14th at church! If you know of anyone who is in need of help getting there kids ready please have them call or email me! Thank you all for your love and support at Crossroads!

Blessings,
Aimee

Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing your holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletin's were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.

It is hard to believe that it is almost time for the kids to go back to school! The summer flew by! As some of you know getting ready for School to go back in is exciting and scary and for us parents a little stressful! We have to make sure the kids have everything they need to start school and these days the schools give you list a mile long for the kids to bring with them! Why am I telling you all this? Well we would like to help relieve some of the stress by providing the children in need with the basic supplies! Below is a list of the needed items and we would need them by Sunday the 7th of August so we can put them together for the kids to be handed out on the 14th at church! If you know of anyone who is in need of help getting there kids ready please have them call or email me! Thank you all for your love and support at Crossroads!

Blessings,
Aimee

Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing your holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletin's were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.

Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing your holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletin's were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.

Hello all!

It is hard to believe that it is almost time for the kids to go back to school! The summer flew by! As some of you know getting ready for School to go back in is exciting and scary and for us parents a little stressful! We have to make sure the kids have everything they need to start school and these days the schools give you list a mile long for the kids to bring with them! Why am I telling you all this? Well we would like to help relieve some of the stress by providing the children in need with the basic supplies! Below is a list of the needed items and we would need them by Sunday the 7th of August so we can put them together for the kids to be handed out on the 14th at church! If you know of anyone who is in need of help getting there kids ready please have them call or email me! Thank you all for your love and support at Crossroads!

Blessings,
Aimee

Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing your holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletin's were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.

Hello all!

It is hard to believe that it is almost time for the kids to go back to school! The summer flew by! As some of you know getting ready for School to go back in is exciting and scary and for us parents a little stressful! We have to make sure the kids have everything they need to start school and these days the schools give you list a mile long for the kids to bring with them! Why am I telling you all this? Well we would like to help relieve some of the stress by providing the children in need with the basic supplies! Below is a list of the needed items and we would need them by Sunday the 7th of August so we can put them together for the kids to be handed out on the 14th at church! If you know of anyone who is in need of help getting there kids ready please have them call or email me! Thank you all for your love and support at Crossroads!

Blessings,
Aimee
