Thank you for taking the time to join with us in Worship!

I often wonder why we have this thing you're holding in your hands called a bulletin. What is it for? What does it say? Or better yet what should I do with it? Is its main purpose to outline the service? Is it for us to know what the next song is so that we can get excited when we know it and disappointed when we don't?

Someone once told me that bulletins were a great ministry tool. For them it was something to give away. Something to hand someone a tool used in making an invitation, inviting a friend or loved one to visit their church. Personally I thought that was a wonderful idea, using the bulletin as a tool.

I encourage you this day to think about someone that you might be able to hand your bulletin to. Maybe what you'll discover is that many of your friends are waiting for you to do that.
INVITE THEM!
